

Learn the recipe for a strong 3MT | 3MT Training Workshop | 2021

Instructions for the Online Video Module:

Please remember to email gsa@jefferson.edu your campus key to be added to the Canvas 3MT Group. You will not be able to access the 3MT page on Canvas until you are registered as a student.

1. Go to canvas.jefferson.edu
2. Log into Canvas using your campus key and password
3. Click on the '3MT Group' course (under 'Courses' on the left side of your screen)
4. Go to 'Discussions' and load the example video links before viewing the online training video.
5. Go to 'Files' and double-click the '3MT Training Materials' folder. This folder contains the training worksheet, online training video, and instructions on how to access Canvas.
6. Be sure to load 3MT example videos before viewing during the training module.
7. Watch the online training module provided in the '3MT Group' on Canvas
 - a. While watching the video, make sure to watch the 3MT example videos and complete the exercises. This will greatly help you form your talk.
 - b. Don't forget to use your resources!
 - i. Pam Walter is available for one-on-one sessions
 - ii. Please attend one of the two Q&A sessions via Zoom on Monday, July 5th from 5-6 PM or Thursday, July 8th from 4-5 pm if you need help or have any questions. (email gsa@jefferson.edu for the Zoom link)
8. Submit your 100 word summary, title, and slide to via the Google link form by August 2nd at 11:59 PM or if you are completing this module for the Science Outreach and Communication certificate deliverable, please send your recorded video to researchnews@jefferson.edu

Video links:

Video 1 - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WQfnpRWgsfM>

Video 2- <https://vimeo.com/album/4768396/video/233777719>

Video 3- <https://vimeo.com/album/5453077/video/292829884>

Video 4- <https://vimeo.com/album/5410757/video/289597496>

Don't hesitate to contact gsa@jefferson.edu with any questions or concerns!